Training Seminar Announcement

INTRODUCTION TO ANIMALS IN DISASTERS

SEMINARS WILL RUN FROM 9:00 A.M. UNTIL 4:00 P.M.

June 25th	Plainville, MA	August 6th	Longmeadow, MA
October 17th	Great Barrington, MA	September 16th	MEMA Region 1
			(Location TBD)

Topics

- Introduction to Disasters and Emergency Management
 - NOT IF, BUT WHEN...emphasize the importance of a teamwork approach to managing emergencies and the need for an emergency management system
- Household Planning
 - Learn how to create a disaster plan that includes the entire family...including your animals!
- Community Planning
 - Effective community disaster planning requires the involvement of many different stakeholders... learn who to involve—and how to involve them -- in your community's animal disaster plan
- Bioterrorism and Foreign Animal Diseases
 - Learn about the outbreak of foreign animal diseases and how they could potentially impact your local community
- Animal Facilities Planning
 - No matter where you work--whether it's an animal shelter, a boarding kennel, a veterinary hospital or a horse stable—you should have an emergency plan in place to provide for the animals entrusted to your care. Learn the key elements for developing a disaster response plan for YOUR animal facility.
- Training for Disaster Volunteers
 - Learn what types of training opportunities are available and recommended for animal disaster responders.

Who Should Attend?
